(Full Prof.)

Yeditepe University
Department of Biomedical Engineering
auk@yeditepe.edu.tr

A. Ümit Keskin received his BSEE degree from Bogazici University in 1978, MSEE from Yildiz Technical University (1980) and PhD degree from the Institute of Science and Technology, Istanbul Technical University (1984). In 1985, he joined Siemens AG, Turkey. He was engaged in the field of Medical Instrumentation throughout his professional career. Since 2002, he is a staff member of Yeditepe University, Faculty of Engineering. His main research interests are applied computational methods, analog circuits, systems and signal processing, transducers, medical instrumentation theory and its applications.
